Admission to specific programs requires that the applicant have adequate education preparation, as measured by satisfactory placement test scores and/or prerequisite courses, and have completed all admission requirements. When scores on the placement test and/or evaluation of admission information indicate that an applicant is not prepared to enter a particular program, the applicant will be offered the appropriate course or courses to provide the needed preparation.

Applicants who have acceptable scores on the Scholastic Aptitude Test (SAT) of the College Board or the Assessment of the American College Testing (ACT) program may submit these results in place of taking the Columbus Technical College placement test.
